Turnier der Meister® - Medien-Guidelines

Those who wish to obtain media accreditation for the Tournament of Masters must prove their legitimacy with an AIPS number or a recognized press id (VDS, DJU, DJV, BDZV, VDZ or FREE LENSE). All other forms of identification will not be accepted.

In order to be issued accreditation, all press must fulfill the following requirements:

- Completely fill out the press accreditation request form, either online or printed out and faxed.
- Present their accreditation request confirmation when picking up the accreditation. The confirmation will be sent as either an email or a letter.
- Those who do not have a recognized press id, might be given accreditation when the following additional requirements are fulfilled:

A letter of recommendation on letterhead from the sending agency, explaining why the accreditation is needed. Emails will not be accepted, and the name and contact information of the agency must be in the letter.

The letter must be received by 12 of March 2012, or else no accreditation will be given.

Because of the size of the Lausitz-Arena, the number of press seats is limited. Accreditation will be granted with the following priorities in mind:

1. News Agencies (dpa, SID, AP, AFP, Reuters, etc.)
2. Daily newspapers
3. Magazines and weekly papers
4. Local television and radio stations
5. Recognized websites and internet agencies

The Tournament of Masters reserves the right to withdraw accreditation at any time and without further explanation from those who conduct themselves in an unprofessional manner.

The use of personal video cameras is strictly forbidden.
